

allied army amount to near 5,000, between dead and wounded. Among the first are to be deplored the brave Generals Espinasse and Clerc. The French army covered itself with glory in this victorious day."

ANOTHER BATTLE.

The following official bulletin was published on the 19th of June:

"Yesterday the allies won a fresh victory, driving the enemy from Marignan, where they had been entrenched. Further details are wanting. It is reported that the Austrians have withdrawn from Belgioioso Davio."

THE EMPEROR TO THE EMPRESS: We have not yet received any details of the brilliant affair at Marignan. We only know that the Austrian corps d'armee under Gen. Bendick has been repulsed, and that we have taken 1,300 prisoners.

It is credibly stated that Gen. Gyulal has been dismissed, and Field Marshal Hess appointed commander-in-chief.

Apache Depredations.

SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS WORTH OF PROPERTY TAKEN!

Some months since a "treaty" was made with the Pinal Apaches, at which they received in advance, for good behaviour, about $4000 worth of goods and 2500 pounds of corn. We predicted then, that the treaty would not be kept, and argued against the policy of such proceedings on the part of government. Since that time not only the Pinals, but the Coyoteros and Mescaleros have time after time violated their treaties without any notice being taken by government. They have improved the period of ostensible peace in traversing the settlements, taking account of the stock, and spying out the ground for future plundering expeditions, as everybody who knew the false and treacherous character of the Apaches expected they would do.

On the night of Saturday, the 16th instant, about 11 o'clock, a party of eighteen or twenty Apaches suddenly appeared among the herd of animals belonging to the Sonora Exploring and Mining Company, at Arivaca, and before the herders could prevent it, drove off the entire herd of ninety-three mules and horses, valued at seven thousand dollars! The whole thing was done in a moment; the moon shining bright at the time, the Indians were distinctly seen mounting some of the animals as they were hurried off.

Word came to Tubac on Sunday morning, and every arrangement was made that circumstances admitted of, to pursue the thieves. An express was sent to Fort Buchanan, and a party dispatched on the trail of the Indians, which pointed towards the Pinal country. The Indians pushed on with their plunder until they came suddenly upon the Canoa rancho, either supposing it uninhabited or desiring to add to their booty. Alarm was given, and Messrs. Kitchen and Doss rushed out in pursuit.—The Indians, alarmed, now abandoned between forty and fifty of the mules, and pushed on with the remainder, followed by the men from the Canoa, until they found the trail divided, when they gave up the chase. Mr. Poston and a party also followed the trail until it separated for the Indian country. The Indians thus escaped with sixteen horses and over twenty mules, worth about $2,500. They are either Pinals or Coyoteros, it is uncertain which.

On the intelligence of the theft reaching Fort Buchanan, Captain R. S. Ewell, with twenty-five troopers, instantly started across towards Tucson to strike the Indian trails and follow them up.

This is an illustration of the wretched policy of these blanket and calico treaties, made with the Apaches. They should be made to beg for peace, and to keep it, without pay or bribery.—If the Apache tribes commence depredations on a large scale, the whole western portion of this territory is liable to be devastated and depopulated, the Overland Mail destroyed, and all mining operations broken up. A short time since it was published throughout the States that "Indian Superintendent Collins" announced to the authorities at Washington the "entire safety" of this portion of the country, and the "perfect security" of the Overland Mail. The fact that an O. M. coach was recently stopped, at night, and searched by a war party of Apaches, and the extensive robbery from Arivaca, together with numerous other depredations, insinuates somewhat forcibly that "Indian Superintendent Collins" is grossly ignorant of the true state of affairs; and it would be vastly to the credit of "Indian Superintendent Collins" if, before making official announcement of the peace and security of this region, he should acquire a little authentic information of the country, in order to have some foundation for his statements; if not, we should not be surprised if the people of Arizona arrived at the conclusion that government might, with great propriety, dispense with the services of "Indian Superintendent Collins," at a very early day.

MORE INDIAN TROUBLES.—The Kaw Indians have commenced murdering and plundering near Council Grove. The Navajos have also repudiated their late treaty, and continue to steal from the whites. The nine Mohave chiefs held as hostages at Fort Yuma, have escaped, and strong fears are entertained of a renewal of hostilities. In fact Indian troubles seem brewing in every direction.

From Mexico.

The New Orleans Picayune says: The steamship Tennessee is below, bound to this port, with Vera Cruz dates to the 22d June. The Conducta, which left the city of Mexico with $5,000,000 in specie on the 28th ult., was seized by Gen. Robles, when forty miles from Vera Cruz.

A commissioner had been sent from Vera Cruz to negotiate with Gen. Robles for the liberation of the specie, but he had accomplished nothing. It is reported that the French and English Ministers had arranged for shipping the specie on board an English war vessel at Matamoros.

Mr. McLean, the U. S. Minister, had sent Capt. Farragut, of the U. S. steamer Brooklyn, to demand the release of the American portion of the specie, amounting to two million dollars, but the result of his mission had not transpired.

In the course of a couple of months it is expected that every available ship and steamer in the American navy will be in commission.—Even the gallant old frigate Constitution is being fitted for sea; she is one of the best vessels in the service.

DEFALCATION.—Geo. W. Coolbaugh, Superintendent on the Overland Mail Line, between El Paso and Fort Chadbourne, lately absconded to Chihuahua, taking cash and company property to the amount of $15,000 as near as can be ascertained. Coolbaugh was a Pennsylvanian, and has hitherto borne a good character.

DIED AT SEA.—Dr. Bailey, editor of the National Era, died at sea, lately, while on a voyage to Europe for his health.
